Education Reform in Connecticut: Ensuring A Seamless Transition

Presented by Shipman & Goodwin LLP's School Law Practice Group

Free Registration

Registration required: space is limited so please register by September 17th.

About the Workshop

In this workshop, we will discuss Public Act 12-116, "An Act Concerning Educational Reform," and other laws affecting education that were passed during the last legislative session. We will review the impact that these changes will have on local and regional boards of education.

It is important for school districts to understand what has changed, and also to understand how much has stayed the same. This workshop will clarify the provisions of the highly publicized and much debated education reform bill.

Workshop Topics

The discussion will focus on the following topics:

- Changes applicable to local and state charter schools;
- Professional development for renewal of teacher certifications;
- Teacher evaluations; and
- Teacher tenure.

Coffee and a light breakfast will be served.

Please register online at: www.shipmangoodwin.com. On the events tab, click on "Education Reform in Connecticut" on the date and location of your choice.

Invite a friend or colleague to join you.

Each participant is invited to bring a guest to the workshop. When registering, please register your guest as well.
