New Laws, Recent Cases, and What's on the Horizon for General Practitioners

Program Description

This CLE program, the first in a series, will provide an overview of basic practice issues for solo and small firm practitioners and what they need to know about new laws and recent significant cases affecting the general practice attorney.

A panel consisting of a Superior Court judge, a state representative and several experienced practicing attorneys will discuss:

- Recent legislation and new laws effective recently, October 1 or thereafter affecting various practice areas, including: real estate, environmental, commercial law & bankruptcy, and civil and criminal law.
- Recent decisions and case law affecting civil and probate practice and litigation.

What to expect from the General Assembly and the state government for legislation, policies and regulations affecting health care, insurance, business, and other practice areas.

The program will provide all attorneys with practical information to keep them and their clients informed of changes in law and practice, the latest new laws, recent legislation and important case law.

Panelists:

Hon. Marshall K. Berger, Jr., Land Use Docket, Hartford Superior Court

John L. Bonee III, BoneeWeintraub LLC
