About the Workshop

This workshop is intended to provide a comprehensive review of the legal rights and responsibilities of board of education members.

Workshop topics will include:

- Board Role and Responsibilities
- Public Meetings and the FOIA
- Robert's Rules of Order and Meeting Conduct
- Board Governance Matters

Furthermore, in its 2015 session, the General Assembly made a number of statutory changes that affect Connecticut School districts. This workshop is intended to give you an overview of some of the changes that were made in the area of education this year, particularly as it relates to the role and responsibilities of board members.

Each participant is invited to bring a guest(s) to the workshop. When registering, please register your guest(s) as well. You may also register online at www.shipmangoodwin.com by clicking on December 15th on the Events Tab.

Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be served.
