

Hartford Business.com

SETTING THE STAGE AT SHIPMAN

Today

Shipman & Goodwin in Hartford hosted the inaugural meeting of the Central Connecticut chapter of the Association of Litigation Support Professionals. The organization works through collaboration, education and certification to advance the litigation support profession and contribute to career development as well as establish global standards. Pictured, from left, are: Jere Wilson, chapter co-founder, ALSP and litigation support, S&G; and Michelle Clifford, chapter co-founder, ALSP and litigation support analyst, S&G.

