Student Privacy and School Communications

Presented by Shipman & Goodwin LLP's School Law Practice Group

Free Registration

Registration required: space is limited so please register by March 29th.

About the Workshop

This workshop for school administrators, special education directors and personnel, counselors, social workers and health personnel goes beyond the basic legal requirements pertaining to schools' obligations to maintain the confidentiality of student information. We will focus on the more difficult questions school personnel face when dealing with the sharing of highly sensitive communications involving students.

Specifically, this program will address how and when to communicate with parents regarding sensitive topics such as substance abuse and student sexual activity and when school professionals may (and should) share such student communications with teachers, administrators, mental health professionals and other adults within the school community.

Workshop Topics

We will discuss confidentiality relative to the following topics:

- Substance Use/Abuse
- Sexual activity
- Counseling information
- HIPAA vs. FERPA
- "Privileged" communications
- Bullying and student discipline
- Child abuse reporting

Coffee and a light breakfast will be served.

Please register online at: www.shipmangoodwin.com. On the homepage under events, click on "Student Privacy and School Communications."

Invite a friend or colleague to join you.

Each participant is invited to bring a guest to the workshop. When registering, please register your guest as well.
