

Biography of Kimberly May-Bailey, MSM

Kimberly is currently the Director of the Migration, Refugee and Immigration Services Department at Catholic Charities Archdiocese of Hartford. Ms. May-Bailey was selected due to her extensive background and proven success record directing Family Based Community programs for over 25 years. She holds a Master's of Science in Management and a Bachelor of Science from Albertus Magnus College with some group work and casework studies from UCONN School of Social work. Her impressive career includes previous roles including Director of the Hartford Asset Building Corporative, Finance Resource Manager and Director for Comprehensive Family Services within the Greater Hartford community. Over the past eight years she has provided leadership and implemented various programs: Supportive Housing, Immigration Services, Integrated Family Violence, Refugee School Impact Programs, Mathew 25 scholarship programs, Welfare to Work programs- to name a few.

She has been given various recognitions over the years including- an appointment as Commissioner for the Mayor's Task Force on HIV/AIDS, Ryan White Planning Council and the Asthma Call to Action Council as well as receiving the Catholic Charities Leadership Award. Kimberly enjoys reading, singing, crafting and dancing to keep her centered. "The highlight of my day is knowing that I play an instrumental part in living out the Gospel of Matthew 25:40 "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'