

Christopher Wardrop, CIC, CRM
Senior Vice President and Public Entity Practice Leader
USI Insurance Services LLC

Chris began his insurance career in 1990 when he joined Wolff-Zackin & Associates, now USI Insurance Services. Most of his 27 year career has been spent working with Connecticut's Public Sector, and in his current role at USI, Chris is a leader in its Public Entity Division, serving over 60 cities, towns, public schools, utilities, transit districts, and other organizations.

His professional involvement includes the Public Risk Management Association, Government Finance Officers Association, Connecticut Association of School Business Officers, and Council of Small Towns.

He is known for his passion and support for the risk management field, speaks regularly on current and emerging risk topics, and maintains both the Certified Risk Manager (CRM) and Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designations.
