

CAPABA, CHBA, Crawford and SABAC proudly present:

BECOMING A JUDGE IN CONNECTICUT:

The Judicial Selection Process

April
18
2019

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Shipman & Goodwin LLP
One Constitution Plaza
Hartford, CT 06103

Free online registration:
<https://bit.ly/2TMX1zE>

Join us for a complimentary informational panel for practicing attorneys who are interested in learning more about Connecticut's judicial selection application process. This event is being offered by the Connecticut Asian Pacific American Bar Association (CAPABA), the Connecticut Hispanic Bar Association (CHBA), George W. Crawford Black Bar Association (Crawford) and the South Asian Bar Association of Connecticut (SABAC), and is being sponsored by Shipman & Goodwin LLP.

Our distinguished panelists include:

- The Honorable Matthew D. Gordon, Hartford Judicial District
- The Honorable Hunchu Kwak, New London Judicial District
- The Honorable Donna M. Wilkerson-Brillant, Ansonia-Milford Judicial District
- Paul Mounds, COO, State of Connecticut, Office of the Governor
- Rosemarie Paine, Member, State of Connecticut Judicial Selection Commission
- Robert Clark, Governor's Counsel, State of Connecticut, Office of the Governor

Visit <https://bit.ly/2TMX1zE> to register (or scan QR code above). Visit <https://www.shipmangoodwin.com/becoming-a-judge-in-connecticut-the-judicial-selection-process-2> for more information. Additional questions may be directed to Colby Fraschilla, cfraschilla@goodwin.com or (860) 251-5337.