Janelle Williams is an associate in Shipman's Real Estate practice group. She represents commercial landlords, tenants, buyers, and sellers in real estate transactions. Janelle focuses on practical, business-minded solutions that help clients move transactions forward efficiently while managing risk.

Her real estate experience includes drafting and negotiating commercial leases for landlords and tenants. She also handles documentation and due diligence review for the sale and acquisition of real property. Janelle addresses environmental issues in transactions involving the remediation of contaminated property, helping clients understand and allocate environmental liabilities as part of the deal.

Janelle is active in the legal community. She is a member of the George W. Crawford Black Bar Association and Connecticut Bar Association. Before joining the firm, she took part in the ABA Judicial Clerkship Program and served as the 56th Secretary of the Northeast Region of the National Black Law Students Association. In 2023, the George W. Crawford Black Bar Association awarded her the Priscilla Green Scholarship Award.
