Aaron Baral practices as part of Shipman's Business and Corporate Practice Group, where he represents a variety of companies and venture capital funds on a wide range of corporate and transactional matters. Aaron advises clients at all stages of growth in mergers and acquisitions, company formation, seed and venture capital financing and as outside general counsel in connection with commercial contracts.

Aaron works closely with other business and corporate lawyers in the group, and when necessary, calls on a multi-disciplinary team of lawyers at the firm to ensure that each client's needs are met efficiently and effectively.

Before joining Shipman, Aaron was a corporate and transactional associate at Wiggin and Dana LLP.
